

FRENCH RIVIERA

1st Day

Monaco

Start from Monaco, the charming Principality, the pearl of the French Riviera.

You can't miss an exclusive dinner at the Restaurant Louis XV immersed in an atmosphere that leads you to the time of Versailles and the court of the king. Good luck for your night at the Casino, but don't forget Jimmi'z!

2nd Day

Beaulieu

Drop off the anchor in the bay of Beaulieu and visit the mediaeval village of Eze: you'll be walking in the past!

3rd day

Antibes

Have a swim in the crystalline waters of one of the forty-eight beaches along the coast of Antibes Juan-les-Pins. In the afternoon walk through the little ancient streets of the old centre. A visit to the castle, last residence of Pablo Picasso. And don't forget the International Jazz Festival, in July.

4th day

Ile de Lerins

Leave in the morning to the Ile de Lerins, where you can stay at anchor. In the smallest island, Saint-Honorat, lies an ancient abbey, founded around 400 by the Gallic-roman saint Honorat. Towards evening, head to Cannes, where you can have fun by Baoli's Club.

5th day

Cannes

Have your breakfast in Cannes, along La Croisette, then watersports in the waters of La Napoule gulf. Sail overnight to St. Tropez

6th day

Iles de Hyères - St. Tropez

In the morning snorkelling in Porquerolle, then Pampelonne Bay, where you can relax swimming.

Don't miss Les C ave du Roy, the disco for the jet set.

7th day

St. Tropez

Shopping in the most important fashion designers' shops. Lunch by the famous beaches "Le Club 55" or "La Voile Rouge".
